- 25. The Board shall consist of not fewer than four (4) Officers and not more than ten (10) Directors.
- 26. Directors-at-Large shall have the same voting rights and responsibilities as Officers but shall not hold a specific executive office unless elected or appointed to do so.

Terms:

27. The Board of Directors shall, subject to the Bylaws or directions given it by majority vote of the Members, at any meeting properly called and constituted, and with consultation of the Director of Education, have full control and management of the affairs of the Association.
28. The Board shall serve in one (1) year terms.
29. Board Meetings shall be held as often as may be required, but the Board must hold a minimum of eight (8) meetings per school year, between the months of September and June.
30. Board Meetings are to be held in-person, as long as reasonably allowed. Should force majeure arise, the Board shall conduct virtual meetings to conduct Association business. Minute taking, Robert's Rules and all other meeting requirements apply in the case of virtual meetings.
31. The Board can motion to go "in camera" to discuss matters of legal issues, hiring, wages, employee evaluations, staffing strategies or firing of personnel. All employees of the Association must step out of the in-camera meeting, with the exception of the Director of Education, unless the matters are directly related to the Director of Education. A motion must be made to leave the in-camera meeting. Discussions in-camera will be documented in separate minutes but kept confidential and stored separately from regular meeting minutes.
32. In the case of time sensitivity, the Board may make a motion through email and have it approved by a majority of Directors, provided that all Directors receive the email correspondence. The motion shall be ratified at the next Board Meeting, and the email correspondence shall be attached to those meeting minutes.
33. Notice of meeting dates, changes to meeting dates, and a summary of all Board meetings shall be posted in the school or on the website.
34. A Special Board Meeting is a meeting that may be called by the President or at the written request of at least two (2) Board Members in good standing, stating the reason for calling such a meeting.
35. Due Notice shall be given for all Board Meetings. "Due Notice" means notice provided at least seven (7) days in advance of any Board Meeting, specifying the date, time, place, and agenda of the meeting.
36. Any three (3) Board Members shall constitute quorum for Board Meetings.
37. The Board, upon consultation with the Director of Education, has final responsibility of administration of all functions of the Association and is accountable to the Membership.
38. At least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Board must at all times be comprised of elected Members, and no more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Board may be appointed.
39. Duties of the Board include, but are not limited to the following:
 - a. Manage the business of the Association with the direction of the Director of Education; in line with current Alberta Education funding regulations and guidelines.
 - b. Make short and long-term plans for the Association.

- c. Authorize urgent financial decisions, under the direction of the Director of Education. Financial decisions are to be made at Board Meetings after full disclosure of details and voting. In urgent or extenuating matters, email voting shall be permitted and the vote shall be recorded in the minutes at the next Board Meeting.
 - d. Appoint person(s) or committee(s) to oversee specific matters under guidelines set out by the Board and the Director of Education.
 - e. Consult with Staff on issues regarding the Association's programs.
 - f. Approve plans that are developed by Staff, the Director of Education, or individuals, groups or committees, that fulfill designated duties. These are to be approved prior to plans being implemented or monies spent.
 - g. Oversee finances of the Association, under the guidance of the Director of Education and in accordance with Alberta Education regulations and guidelines.
 - h. Remove from office any Director or Officer appointed, person(s), group or committee, at the discretion of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board, who is/are not performing their duties.
40. Any expenditure of $5,000 or more must be obtained at "arm's length", whereby three (3) quotes must be obtained from independent third parties.
41. The Director of Education is authorized to make decisions on individual expenditures that are necessary for school functioning or school improvement, up to an amount of $2,500. Any expenditures or improvements exceeding $2,500 shall require Board approval. The Director of Education shall disclose all details of monies spent at the next Board Meeting.

Duties of Board Members and Officers:

42. Following each election, those individuals elected as Directors and Officers must review and sign the Code of Conduct for Officers and Directors and Board Confidentiality Agreement and adhere to the terms and conditions contained therein. If an individual refuses to sign the document and/or adhere to its terms and conditions, he or she must offer his or her resignation to the Board immediately.
43. The duties of the Directors and Officers include, but are not limited to the following:
- a. Fairly representing all Members of the Association and promoting their objectives.
 - b. Representing the Board by participation in and/or acting as the chair of committees when required.
44. Upon termination of office, Directors and Officers shall surrender all books, records and other property of the Association to the Director of Education.
45. All Directors and Officers shall be indemnified and held harmless from and against all claims, actions, causes of action, demands, costs, losses, damages, expenses, suits or other proceedings by whomever made, brought, or prosecuted in any manner based upon or related to the activities of the Association, provided that no Director or Officer shall be indemnified for any act or omission involving fraud, wilful misconduct, or gross negligence.

Remuneration and Financial Benefit of Directors and Officers:

46. All Directors and Officers of the Association shall serve on a voluntary basis and without remuneration. No Director or Officer shall receive any salary, honorarium, fee, or other compensation for carrying out their duties as a Director or Officer of the Association.
47. No Director or Officer shall use their position on the Board to obtain, directly or indirectly, any personal financial benefit from the Association.
48. Notwithstanding paragraphs 46 and 47, a Director or Officer may be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses personally incurred while carrying out authorized duties on behalf of the Association, provided that such expenses are supported by appropriate documentation and approved in accordance with the Association's financial policies.
49. Nothing in this section shall prevent a Director or Officer from participating in Association programs, activities, or services that are available to Members generally on the same terms and conditions as other Members.

Duties of Officers:

President:

50. The President shall:
 - a. call, conduct and chair all meetings when present, in accordance with these Bylaws. If absent, the Vice President shall preside at such meetings;

ARTICLE 12: FINANCIAL AND AUDIT

80. The Authorized Signing Officers shall sign all legal and official documents of the Association.

81. The President and Treasurer are the Authorized Signing Officers for the Association. They are authorized to sign all documents on behalf of the Association where an "authorized signature" is required.

82. This privilege may be temporarily delegated to the Vice President in the President's absence.

83. All financial institutions require that an organization name Bank Signing Authorities who may make banking transactions on behalf of the organization. The Treasurer must be one of the Bank Signing Authorities on all bank accounts of the Association. A Bank Signing Authority may not delegate his or her authority to anyone else.

84. As per Alberta Education regulations, an annual audit of the books, accounts, and records of the Secretary and Treasurer shall be conducted as of August 31st of each year, in time to be presented at the Annual General Meeting, and interim audits at any time as required by the Board. A duly qualified auditor shall be appointed annually by the President, with approval of the Board, and ratified by Members at the Annual General Meeting.

85. Members may inspect the books and records of the Association at the registered office (or such other location as determined under paragraph 52) during regular business hours upon providing forty-eight (48) hours' prior written notice to the Secretary or President, subject to the limitations and procedures set out in paragraphs 51 and 52.

ARTICLE 13: CONFLICT RESOLUTION

86. During any meeting, if the Members are seriously divided on an issue, that issue may be tabled to a subsequent meeting or referred to a special committee chaired by a Member of the Board. At the initial meeting, the President will give notice of a Special Meeting to be held within ninety (90) days to deal with the findings of the special committee.

87. If the Board is of the opinion that it has exhausted all other means of conflict resolution, it may initiate facilitation, mediation, or arbitration.
88. If the Board is of the opinion that any vote of the Members at a General Meeting, Special Meeting, or Annual General Meeting did not represent the best interests of the Association, a Special Meeting may be called by the President to re-examine the issue.

ARTICLE 14: BORROWING POWER

89. For the purposes of carrying out its objectives, the Association may borrow, raise or secure the payment of money in such a manner as it thinks fit. In particular, the issue of debentures shall be exercised only under the authority of the Association, and in no case shall debentures be issued without the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Association.

ARTICLE 15: SALE OF CAPITAL ASSETS

90. The sale of capital items of $2,500.00 or more shall be allowed with the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors present at a Board Meeting. Any such sale shall be conducted at fair market value. Where the sale price is $5,000.00 or more, the Board shall make reasonable efforts to obtain alternative quotations, appraisals, or other evidence of fair market value prior to the sale.

ARTICLE 16: BY-LAW AMENDMENTS

91. The Bylaws shall not be rescinded, altered, or added to except by Special Resolution of the Association. Such amendments will take effect only after successful filing with the Corporate Registry Office.
92. Notice of a Special Meeting to amend the Bylaws must be provided to Members at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting in accordance with the notice provisions set out in Article 10.
93. A Special Resolution to amend the Bylaws must be passed by a vote of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of those Members entitled to vote who vote in person at the Special Meeting.

ARTICLE 17: DISSOLUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION

94. Upon dissolution or winding up of the Association by Special Resolution, and after fulfilling all legal and legislated obligations, any remaining assets will be distributed back to the Association's funder, if required by the funder, or to one or more registered charitable organizations in Canada with similar educational purposes as determined by the Dissolution Committee.
95. The Dissolution Committee will be formed, composed of the President, the Treasurer, one (1) Director, and a minimum of two (2) Members at large, to manage the disposition of assets and the dissolution of the Association. The Dissolution Committee must act in accordance with the Societies Act (Alberta) and all other applicable legal requirements governing the dissolution of societies in Alberta.
